Monthly Book Club Discussion

Please join us on Wednesday, July 18,
at 10:00a.m.
for a discussion of
The Great Gatsby
by F. Scott Fitzgerald

The story of the mysteriously wealthy Jay Gatsby and his love for the beautiful Daisy Buchanan, of lavish parties on Long Island at a time when The New York Times noted "gin was the national drink and sex the national obsession."

The F Street door will be open at 9:45 that morning. Everyone is welcome! Bring your own copy of the book, or check one out from the library.

Star Spangled Banner

-Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see,
by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say,
does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Need a cake pan for a special occasion? No need to buy one, check it out from the library!

Current options are small, but would like to add more. If you have a specialty cake pan sitting in your cupboard that you will never use again, bring it to the library and we will add it to our collection!
