Join us at the Fairbury Public Library Thursday, February 28th, at 6pm, when author Nelsen Peterson presents:

"Selfies with Sacajawea: The Corps of Rediscovery on the Lewis and Clark Trail."

The presentation chronicles the author's experience as he set out on a two-week journey following in the footsteps of Lewis and Clark from St. Louis, MO to the Pacific Ocean.

Monthly Book Club Discussion

Please join us on Wednesday, February 20 at 10:00 a.m. for a discussion of Growing up laughing by Marlo Thomas

For as long as Marlo Thomas can remember, she's lived with laughter. Born to comedy royalty--TV and nightclub star Danny Thomas--she grew up among legendary funny men, carved much of her career in comedy and, to this day, surrounds herself with people who love and live to make others laugh.

The F Street door will be open at 9:45 that morning. Everyone is welcome! Bring your own copy of the book, or check one out from the library.

The Library is giving away a Kindle fire!

Earn entries into a grand prize drawing for a Kindle fire by participating in monthly activities:

- November – Play library Bingo
- December – Make a donation of food or clothing to the children's department
- January – Name the shredded book

- At any time during the contest, earn an extra entry into the final drawing by signing up for and trying Mango and/or RBdigital books and magazines (one entry for each)
- Check out a book that has a "Golden Ticket" hidden in it and earn up to two extra entries for the grand prize drawing.
