Zoo Nebraska

By Carson Vaughan

Royal, Nebraska, population eighty-one—where the church, high school, and post office each stand abandoned, monuments to a Great Plains town that never flourished. But for nearly twenty years, they had a zoo, seven acres that rose from local peculiarity to key tourist attraction to devastating tragedy. And it all began with one man's outsize vision.

Please let library staff know if you are interested in joining the book discussion group.

The Fairbury
Journal-News

Would you like to explore historic editions of the Fairbury Journal-News from the comfort of your home with just your library card? Well, now you can!

The Library is partnering with Newspaper Archives to digitize old issues of the newspaper currently available on microfilm that will then be available through our library's subscription.

The project was initiated, and partially funded, by a former Fairbury resident. This is not a library funded project, so the remainder of the funds need to be raised through private donations. If you would like to help, donations can be made to the Fairbury Public Library Foundation and dropped off at the library.

NEW OVERDUE BOOKS POLICY

The library is no longer charging overdue fees. However, once items have been overdue three days or more, patrons will be notified by text message, e-mail, phone call or letter as a reminder of the overdue items. After ten days, overdue materials will be considered lost and the patron charged for replacement cost. Checkout privileges will be suspended until the items are paid for or returned. Lost charges will be removed from patron records once an item is returned. This policy is retroactive. Next time you visit the library, if you have overdue fines on your card, we will waive them. This only applies to overdue fines, not lost/damaged material fines or other fees.
